Response to Debtor's One Hundred Seventy-Third Omnibus Objection to Claims

- 1) Claimant: William C. Smith
Amount of Claim: $106,680.10.
Basis: Voluntary Deferred Employee Compensation

- 2) Reasons Claim Should Not Be Disallowed Or Expunged:

The claim in this case should not be disallowed or expunged because it is a claim for work performed and elected to be received as voluntary employee compensation. It is a valid debt that is owed to me for work performed. This claim was timely filed and the account is held by Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. and is based on work performed for Smith Barney. I no longer work for Smith Barney and have not received a payment from this account for several years. I am retired and had depended on this money to help cover my monthly expenses.
